

Revelle College

Revelle College is distinguished by its emphasis on specific general-education requirements and rigorous academic standards. A high percentage of Revelle College students enroll in graduate or professional schools (law, medicine, management, etc.), graduate with double majors, design individualized interdisciplinary majors, work on a research project, or graduate with university honors.

*Actual accommodations may vary by building and room set up.

